ORDER

Government have approved the guidelines to conduct K-TET IV in the State as per Government Order read as 1st paper above. In the Para 1 of (important Note in Page No.4) the guidelines is as follows:

1. Candidate who have completed the course (Degree/ Diploma/Certificate) and awaiting exam results which is required for eligibility as mentioned in these guidelines are also eligible to apply for the test. Their candidature by the appointing authority, however, shall be considered only when they have acquired the minimum qualification.

The Secretary, Pareeksha Bhavan vide letter read above has brought to the notice of Government some practical difficulties for issuing K-TET Pass Certificate to eligible candidates due to non-submission of the Pass Certificates of B.Ed/PG and has requested to exclude the above note and modify the guidelines.

Government have examined the matter in detail and are pleased to modify the Para I of (important Note in Page No.4) the guidelines approved as per Government Order read as Ist paper above as follows.

1. Those who possess the minimum qualification at the time of notification need to be applied.

The Guidelines approved vide Government Order read as Ist paper above will stand modified to the above extent.
